As to the quality of our soil, we think it equal to the very best-One farmer, who made the first clearing upon his farm in the fall of 35, raised last year nine hundred brekele of wheat; and sold it on the spot for about ten shillings the bushel. He hes raised this year, upwards of eleven bundred bushels of the same product, and the probability is that he will be able to dispose of the whole of it without the trouble and expense of hauling it lo harket at prices fully equal to last years. This is not a single, individual case Who -ould not be a farmer? The subject is one of great interest to the citizens of Maine; and we sope that it may continue to receive that attention which its importance demandsh.

THE LATE ELECTIONS. There is no mistake about it the Globe and other hireling presses of the administration, have showst spirit their throats in hallooing before they were "out of the woods," as regards the late elections. The Madiannian thinks their ultimate gain will prove to be, to use the Globe's elegant expression, the " the levtle eend of nothing whittled down to a point." There is no doubt that they have gained the vitros and fauntics and fag. chil of all parties and sects. But their loss will be a mejority of the " sober a cond thought" Proper.
